J. O. Zimmermann. D. C. (Doctor of Chiropratic)

I take pleasure in assuring you of my gratitude for what your spinal adjustments have enabled my cells (Vis Medica Trix Naturae) to do.

Thirty years ago, through a severe bicycle accident my spine was injured. Having spent thousands of dollars searching for relief and meeting only disappointment after treatment by many eminent specialists in New York, Boston, Baltimore and other places, I am all the more appreciative of what Chiropractic has already accomplished for me.

Burglars are burglarizing in the village of Bradford, which is within the police jurisdiction of the town of Westerly. Friday night the Vars drug store and postoffice and the Gervasini store and postoffice and the Gervasini saloon were entered, entrance being gained to each place in the same manner, by the removal of a window pane. At the Vars store in the post-office section only 15 pennies were taken, all that was within reach, the postage stamps not being disturbed. In the drug store the burglars made a general ransack, and took away watches, razors, fountain pens, cigars and candy, all to the value of about $75. Also 50 pennies that were left in the cash register. It is believed that there were two or more engaged in the burglary and that they were in no hurry to leave the store, as they no hurry to leave the store, as they are in order to leave the store, as they are ince cream and smoked cigars, leaving the butts on the counter. This is the second time within four months that the Vars store has been visited by burglars. As on the former occasion, the highest grade of safety razors were taken in preference to razors of a cheaper grade: The total loss to the store by both burglaries will total $150. There is reason to believe that the burglars are not strangers, but are residents of the village and familiar with the local conditions

The monument of the states of Rhode Island and Massachusetts to Colonel Henry Tillinghast Sisson was dedicated in Little Crompton Saturday with elaborate ceremonies. Colonel Sisson was in command of the Fifth Rhode Island, which under his leadership ran a confederate blockade on the Pamileo river and brought relief to the garrison of Fort Washington, which was nearly schausted. In this fort were the 27th and 44th Massachusetts regiments. This daring ant engendered the most cordial relations between the Massachusetts and Rhode Island forces. When the colonel died both states made appropriations for the joint erection of a memorial to his honor.

At a special meeting Saturday afternoon, of Phebe Greene Ward chapter, D. A. R., it was voted to give stole for the Red Triangle fund.

After short speeches at the Lorraine mill by Dr. M. H. Scanlon and Representative Samuel H. Davis, a contribution of $402.25 was made to the Y. M. C. A. fund.

Earl Palmer spent Friday night in the woods and returned Saturday morning with two raccoons, plump and fat, and in good fur. One weighed 13 and the other 18 pounds.

Joseph Jafason: found a trolley conductor's case in the woods and turned it over to the police. It belonged to Conductor Owen Sherry and was stolen from a trolley car a week ago. Many Westerly residents always refer to the village of Pawers.

The monument, which is entirely a product of Rhode Island art, was designed by Henri Schondart of Providence, the bronze figure and commemdence, the bronze figure and commem-orative tablets were cast by the Gor-ham company and the granite pedestal was quarried and cut in Westerly by the New England Granite company.

With Judge Doran gresiding, the November term of the superior court for Washington county will convent today at Kingston. At this session it is expected that Michael Slammon, who was supply sergeant at Fort Greble, will be tried for the murder of his brother-in-law, Robert A. Parkinson, at Saunderstown. Another case of interest is that against Miss Alice Sargent of Watch Hill and Brookline, Mass., charged with manslaughter. Her automobile, which she was operating on the Watch Hill road, struck and fatally injured a caddie, Cornelius A. Shea. These cases were down for trial at the last session, but were continued. It is understood that Miss Sargent has avoided a civil suit by the payment of $2,500 to the parents of the Shea boy.

New actions at law are as follows: Oliver E. Vars vs. the N. Y. N. H. & I. Railroad company. Davis, Smith Oliver Vars vs. N. Y., N. H. & H.

Beautiful Table Damasks

THE THANKSGIVING DAY DISPLAY OF LINENS IS

The Thanksgiving Day shipments of Table Damasks have all arrived, from the big cloths intended for "big family" use to the small ones for the table set for two or four. All of our Damasks, from the magnificent all-linen double damask to sets less expensive but just as handsome mercerized brother, are uncommonly attractive in both appearance and price. Best of all, too, our present prices closely approximate the old. You can supply your needs without feeling that you are spending too much—you are actually making a good investment.

THE FINEST MECERIZED DAMASK

As the full weight of the war has been felt by the linen industry the Mercerized Cotton Damasks have come more and more into prominence. The perfection of the processes now, and the excellence of the designs produced have made the Mercerized Damask a worthy competitor against the all-linen. We are showing a complete line of very handsome Mercerized Damask which we will be very glad to have you see — a display which is unequalled in this city.
